4. Reading and comprehension:“WE PLAY TAG TOGETHER” – By Amie Jane Leavitt

Ally and Lauren ¹put their lunch boxes on the shelf in their classroom. “Tami said we are all going to play tag together on the playground today”, said Ally. “I love tag,” Lauren said. Lauren was surprised that Tami had invited Ally to play. Tami had always been ²mean to Ally. “I’m so glad she is finally trying to be nice!”, thought Lauren. Ally said she needed to take a book to the library, so she ³ran down the hall to the library.

Lauren ⁴raced out to the playground. When she got there, Tami was already gathering the other kids into a circle. Lauren ran over to join them. Tami said, “I have a fun idea. Let’s just tag Ally. Don’t tell her!”

Lauren didn’t feel very good about this. Children would make fun of her and tease her. Lauren decided that she wouldn’t follow along with them. She knew she should treat all kids with kindness.

Lauren said, “That doesn’t sound like a fun idea to me. I don’t think we should treat Ally like that. So I don’t want to play.” Lauren walked out the circle. Then all the other kids followed Lauren and they went together to look for Ally. All of them played tag together.

Remember, there is no place for bullying!
