Do you know what Handball is? It's a team sport in which two teams of seven players *pass*¹ a ball using their hands with the *aim*² of *throwing*³ it into the *goal*⁴ of the other team. It sounds good, doesn't it?

My name is Clark, and Handball, for me, was the best thing in my life when I was 13 years old, and I was really good at playing this kind of game. That's why my P.E. teacher asked me to play with the school handball team. I loved the idea, but I didn't know that my team had to practice three times a week in the afternoon.

I studied every morning from seven thirty to eleven thirty, and I had lunch at home around twelve thirty. After having lunch, I wore my pair of sneakers (tennis shoes), and I left home to practice handball with my team in a handball stadium far from my house. It took me one hour to go from my house to the stadium. It was not easy, but I enjoyed playing with them. We won some matches and we lost others, but it was a remarkable time for me. What about you? Did you ever play any sports?

² aim = objetivo

³ to throw = lançar/arremessar/atirar
